4. Main Notes for the 2014 Selection

- o Applicants have to apply for this program via either an embassy or a designated university. Overseas Korean adoptees have to apply only via an embassy if their countries are allotted the adoptee quotas.
- o The selection process for applicants will proceed in three steps. Firstly, applicants must be selected by the institution he or she is applying through (a Korean embassy, or a designated university). Secondly, applicants who passed the first round must be selected by the NIIED Selection Committee. Finally, applicants who passed the second round must gain admission from a university.

o Institutions accepting applications: 117 overseas Korean embassies or 60 designated Korean universities.

 Applicants who submit applications to more than one of the aforementioned institutions will be disqualified immediately.

o Selection Procedure

- 1st Selection: Each 1st selection institution will draft a selection standard based on the criteria provisioned by NIIED, and recommend the best applicants according to its respective standards.

- 2nd Selection: The NIIED Selection Committee will select the most successful candidates from the pool of applicants recommended by the 1st selection institutions.

- 3rd Selection: Only the candidates who were recommended by a Korean embassy and passed the 2nd selection successfully will be evaluated for admission by the 3 universities to which they applied; each candidate has to gain admission from at least one university.

* Applicants who were recommended by a designated university will automatically be granted admission to the university that recommended them, upon the condition they are selected as a successful candidate in the 2nd Selection. Subsequently, once they pass the mandatory medical examination (when it's orientation), they will join the ranks of the final successful candidates.

5. Duration of Scholarship

o Master's (01.09.2014 ~ 31.08.2017) : 1 yr. of Korean language + 2 yrs of Master's

9. Selection Procedure Details

- o The guideline, application form, and university information will be available at the website of GKS (www.studyinkorea.go.kr), Korean Embassies, and designated domestic universities.
- o For applicants (including Korean adoptees) who apply for KGSP via Korean Embassies
 - (1st Selection) Korean Embassies make its own selection schedule and plan based on the criteria provided by NIIED, and accept the applications. They select 1.5 times as many candidates as their quota from the pool of applicants and recommend them to NIIED.
 - * Applicants from China and the Czech Republic should submit their applications to the Ministry of Education (or equivalent institution) in their respective country of origin, in accordance with the mutual agreements between Korea and those countries.
 - * Only Korean adoptees who have foreign citizenship can apply for this program via a Korean Embassy if their countries of origin are allotted the adoptee quota. They are selected through a separate procedure; general applicants cannot be accepted through this application category.
 - (2nd Selection) NIIED Selection Committee selects as many successful candidates as each embassy quota amongst the pool of candidates recommended by the Embassies.
 - (3rd Selection) NIIED submits the documents of successful candidates to their 3 universities of indicated preference, and requests admission examination of the candidates into their master's or doctoral programs. The universities have to notify the result of examination to the candidates and NIIED by the designated date. The candidates who gain admission from more than one university will have to make a final selection, and notify their respective local Korean Embassy and NIIED by the designated date. Only the candidates who gain admission within the 3rd Selection period can be accepted as official KGSP scholars.

o For applicants who apply for KGSP via designated domestic universities

- (1st Selection) Each designated university will draft its own selection schedule and plan based on the criteria provided by NIIED, and accepts the applications. Each designated university will select up to 20 candidates from all of the quota-assigned countries and recommend them to NIIED. They cannot recommend more than 3 candidates from a single country.

- (2nd Selection) NIIED Selection Committee selects as many successful candidates as each country's quota from all of the candidates recommended by the universities. The candidates who are selected in the NIIED Selection Committee will be accepted to the university which recommended them, and will be finally accepted as official KGSP scholars upon a successful comprehensive medical examination.

“Korean Government Scholarship Program for Graduate Study”

Pledge (서약서)

As an applicant for the 2014 “Korean Government Scholarship Program (KGSP) for Graduate Study”, I pledge to abide by the following rules:

- (1) To refrain from violation of university regulations and to fulfill my obligations as a KGSP scholar to the best of my ability.
- (2) To behave in a manner appropriate to Korean culture and society, and not to participate in any form of political activity (such as organizing a political party, joining a political party, attending political meetings, publishing political articles and declarations, organizing or participating in demonstrations of a political nature, and so on).
- (3) To accept responsibility for paying any debts incurred in Korea
- (4) To agree with NIIED's decision concerning the graduate program and the Korean language course
- (5) To abide by all terms and regulations set by NIIED.
- (6) To permit NIIED to use my personal information for the KGSP.

If I am proved to have violated any of the above or to have made a false statement in my application documents, I shall accept any resolution or penalty made by NIIED, even when it may/might result in suspension, revocation or withdrawal of my scholarship.

I was informed and fully understand that KGSP scholars are not permitted to transfer schools for the entire duration of scholarship after confirming their host institution including Korean language institution.
