

CURRICULUM VITAE

Jiabin SONG

Email: jiabin.song@vdu.lt; Tel: +370 37 331 323

Education

---

Vytautas Magnus University (Kaunas, Lithuania) 2023-present

PhD Candidate in Political Science

Dissertation topic: “The Regime-Morphosis from Totalitarian to Authoritarian - The Changes in The Chinese Communist Party Regime’s Legitimation Forms and Its Legitimacy Outcome”

Vytautas Magnus University (Kaunas, Lithuania) 2021-2023

Diplomacy and International Relations Programme, MA

Final thesis: “The wealth-military conversion capability’s implication for offensive realism - a study on the quasi-unipolar system”

Vytautas Magnus University (Kaunas, Lithuania) 2017-2021

World Politics and Economy Programme, BA

Final thesis: “Lithuania’s position on the democratization of Belarus - two approaches from the perspective of Lithuania’s national interests”

Work Experience

---

Vytautas Magnus University (Kaunas, Lithuania) 202102 - 202104

Political Science and Diplomacy Faculty, teaching/researching assistant

Eastern Europe Studies Centre (Vilnius, Lithuania) 202108 - 202204

China Research Programme, researching assistant, Chinese media monitor

Centre for Asian Studies (Kaunas, Lithuania) 202209 - 202305

Chinese media monitor, China public policy analysis, weekly news column writing, interinstitutional collaboration assistant.

Scientific Publication

---

Boruta R. and Song J. (2022). Dynamics of the Sino-Taliban relations and its reflection in the Chinese domestic media. Eastern European Studies Centre.

Song J. (2023). Why China's foreign policy remains a neutrality in the Russian invasion of Ukraine? – a grand strategy analysis through offensive realist prism. Lithuanian Annual Strategic Review, vol. 20, pp. 21-52.

Didvalis L. and Song J. (2023). Between Nuclear Autonomy and Foreign Extended Nuclear Deterrence Protection: the Case of Japan. Lithuanian Annual Strategic Review, vol. 21, pp. 5-36.

Šarkutė L. and Song J. (2024). Handling with Legitimacy Crisis of the Chinese Communist Party: How is the Promotion of Confucianism Related with the Labour Protest Levels? Public Policy and Administration, vol. 2, no.1, pp. 87-101.

Conference Participation

5th Baltic Alliance for Asian Studies Conference (Tallinn, Estonia) 2022/09/23 - 25
Presentation topic: “Why the bandwagoning with the United States is remaining the only feasible grand strategy for Japan in the 21st Century? An analysis of Japan’s geopolitical setting under a structural realist perspective”

15th Conference on Baltic Studies in Europe (Kaunas, Lithuania) 2023/06/15 - 17
Presentation topic: “China as a geopolitical factor in Lithuania’s national security”

Academic conference “Challenging relations with(in) East Asia” (Kaunas, Lithuania) 2023/11/03 – 04
Presentation topic: “The principle of China’s foreign policy on international conflict (1949-2021) – an empirical model”

Academic Project

“Spotlight Taiwan” Program 2023/03 - 2023/11
Role: Conference assistant.

Lithuanian–Latvian–Chinese (Taiwanese) Tripartite Cooperation Project 2023/11 – ongoing
Role: Coordinator in the inter-institutional cooperation between the three parties.

Media Commentary

The 20th Nation Congress of the Chinese Communist Party: the continuation of tradition and the breaking of established principles (i.e., Lithuanian title: “Artėjantis Kinijos komunistų partijos kongresas: tradicijos tąsa ir nusistovėjusių principų laužymas”, published by LRT, DELFI & Diena between 2022/09/14 - 15)

After the Chinese Communist Party Congress ends: loud slogans and Xi’s autocracy (i.e., Lithuanian title: “Kinijos komunistų partijos kongresui pasibaigus: skambūs lozungai ir Xi vienvaldystė”, published by Bernardinai on 2022/10/24)

It is the prevalent grievance in Chinese society not merely the zero-Covid policy that finally ignites the vast anti-government protest in China. (i.e., Lithuanian title: “Masiniai protestai Kinijoje: politinė krizė gali tapti neišvengiama”, published by TV3 on 2022/11/30)

A parallel world (i.e., Lithuanian title: “Šio susitikimo Putinas troško 13 mėnesių: dviejų šalių pozicijos dėl karo skiriasi kardinaliai”, published by Delfi & diena on 2023/04/29 - 05/01)

Other skills

Skills: Words, Excels, PPT, R.

Language capability

Cantonese(Canton, Hongkong, Singapore), Mandarin(Mainland China), English C2, Japanese level 1.